

CSCP Young Advisor: 'My year in lockdown'

March 2020

Lockdown began and I lost my mind! I was eager to go out but worried about seeing my friends.

April 2020

Spent money on food / clothes and just lived life day by day.

May 2020

Started to get irritated with everything and just stayed by myself and was very anti-social 😞

June 2020

I turned a corner and I began to think about my self-development.

July 2020

I built up my self-confidence and learnt about who I really am.

Aug 2020

Thorpe Park opened so I took advantage and went to have fun!

September 2020

Designed t-shirts for my events.

October 2020

Link up with the family before another lockdown started.

November 2020

Started to exercise more and manage my time more and getting my sleeping pattern sorted.

December 2020

My birthday was on 19th !!

January 2021

My cousin lost her grandma so I comforted her and got her back on her feet.

February 2021

You made $1K
Someone made $10K
Someone made $100K
Someone made $5

Lesson:
- You're always better than someone
- Someone is always better than you
Compete with yourself.
Become the best version of yourself.
Focus on your own life.

Self-development and working on my life goals and writing up my new business plan!
