The CSCP will be delivering both face-to-face and virtual safeguarding training. Please ensure that you have read the course description, so you are clear on the delivery method for the course you have booked. Further details will be directly shared with you closer to the course date.

- Delegates need to register for a CSCP training account
- Apply to join the course: <https://cscp.org.uk/training/calendar-of-events/>
- An automated confirmation email will be received if your application is successful
- Further details will be shared before the course date including the location of the course (details also provided below)
- Complete the three-stage evaluation which delegates will receive by email

If the session you are attending is virtual:

- Please make sure you can access Microsoft Teams or Zoom
- There is an expectation that all delegates engage and fully participate in the sessions and if virtual and always have their camera on
- Keep questions general, and avoid giving any information that could be used to identify a child or family
- Use headphones or a headset and always keep your speaker on mute if you're not speaking
- Don't record any of the online conversation
- Make sure other people you live with, especially children, are not in the room and cannot overhear sensitive information
- Don't use any other devices while you're taking part
- Join on laptop or PC for a better experience

Failure of any of the above will result in the delegate not receiving their certificate of accreditation.

This schedule is subject to change and other courses may be added or removed. All applications must be made using the online registration and application system on the website <https://cscp.org.uk/training/>

To make sure the course is right for you, please review the course objectives before making an application and advice should be sought from your manager regarding which courses will meet your individual training needs.

The Camden Safeguarding Children Partnership provides safeguarding training free of charge to all agencies working directly with children and young people in Camden. The Partnership expects that all delegates offered a place at the course attend. If delegates cannot attend, the Partnership or training providers need to be notified 7 days in advance in order for the place to be filled by another professional.

Failure to attend the training may result in a £125 non-attendance fee being charged to your agency.

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

Where can I find information about the multi-agency training programme?

If you have registered a training account with us, you will receive regular emails about courses. You can also visit our website: <https://cscp.org.uk/training/> where course details are posted as soon as they are available.

How do I apply to attend courses?

Once you have opened a training account you need to visit the website <https://cscp.org.uk/training/calendar-of-events/> and click on the course of your choice, you can then click 'Apply'. You will then receive an email if your application is successful.

You cannot apply for a place on a course unless you have registered with us first. You cannot apply for a place on a course on behalf of somebody else.

How much does the training cost and what are the cancellation arrangements?

CSCP multi-agency courses are funded by the agencies which make up the Partnership. There is no charge for individuals attending CSCP training. Please note that if you are offered a place on a course and do not explain non-attendance or you cancel less than one week before the event your agency will be charged a £125 non-attendance fee. We expect that you will have discussed your application and how it meets your training needs before applying and that your manager will facilitate your attendance. If you need to cancel your place – you must do this via the website.

If I can't come can I give my place to someone else from my agency?

It may be possible to arrange this, but please ask us before proceeding as in some circumstances we will need to offer to those on the waiting list.

Will delegates receive certificates on multi-agency courses?

Participants will be provided with certificates of attendance if they attend the whole course. Arriving late or leaving early may result in not receiving a certificate. All certificates will be shared within 6-8 weeks of the course.
